Columbus Firefighters Respond to Cement Pumper Collapse

At approximately 0827 hours Columbus Firefighters responded to a construction accident at the old city center construction site. A truck pumping concrete collapsed. The boom was fully extended to about 188 feet. The cause of the collapse may have been due to parking on unstable ground. OSHA is on the scene and investigating the incident.

Three male victims were transported to Grant and Mt Carmel West Hospitals with fractures, lacerations and contusions, one individual is in serious condition and the other two are stable.
